

How can you best reflect with others?

Think about ways you might be able to reflect alongside others, or collaboratively with them.

How can we support others in their reflection?

Think about ways you can encourage others to take time to reflect.

How can others support you in your reflection?

What would you find helpful from others to encourage you?