

What situations would you like to understand better?

Be specific and think about how this would benefit you.

What situations do you not need to understand?

Consider if there are things you can trust others to deal with.